

TINDAL STREET PUPPET SHOW

Margaret Hendley (seated on the right) sent this lovely picture from Tindal Street School circa 1950. She thinks the teacher was Miss Harvey.

MEMORIES

STEVE WAKELAM

Steve Wakelam asked for a copy of the Cox Street West photograph and wrote in reply...

Originally Mom's family lived at 2 court 27 but due to wartime incendiary damage they moved to 2 court 87. My Nan [ Amy] remained there until April 1965 when she was moved by the Council to Kings Norton . If you look at the photo on the left just behind the two old ladies is a step and doorway. If my memory serves me correctly this was the entrance to Beattie Clarkes Shop - a sort of a mini-market. The factory entrance and driveway next door belonged to Ortons [sprayers]. Ahead of the old ladies are two shop fronts the first belonged to the Cohen's [tailors] the second to Mr and Mrs Marks also tailors although by now Mr Marks was an
