

Thursday 6th February, 2.00 pm at the Moseley Exchange

'So close, but so far away'

The latest research by the Moseley Society History Group on four local men, two of whom died just days before the Armistice and two who survived the war; one never to return to these shores and another that did, only to die a week later from the Spanish Flu

This will be followed by tea and cake